“ My Grandfather was the best man in the world. He's the only person I knew that literally knew everyone in the Ironton area. I miss so much no one can imagine. He was one of the very I trusted with every ounce of my body. I hurt every moment of everyday for him. I wish a million times over again he wouldn't have gotten in that tree. I want to talk to him. I want him to be here for me in my time of need. After two years of him being gone I haven't over his passing and I never will. I have my days when I think of him and all our good memories but I also have my bad days where I can't bare the sound of his name because I break down in a million pieces all over again. I wish he were here but in my heart somethings telling me he's the reason I have Lane.

I miss you every day Grandpa. I'll never stop missing you!
