“ My first memory is this little barefoot girl walking down the hill to our house carrying her baby brother on her hip in his diaper. She stole my heart that day! She was in and out of our home from that day forward, her and Shannon bonded like natural born sisters, they would have disagreements but never let it break that bond... Ani will never be forgotten... she was and is very loved by many people! Shannon Heidi and Bradie all considered her a sister, my heart breaks for Shawn, Chaman and Ciara, I wish I could take your pain guys...

“ I first met Annie when she was a student in my first grade classroom. She was a joy to have in class. Always so pleasant and nice to everyone. I knew things were not ideal for her at home, but she never complained to me nor to the other children. As she got older I lost track of her and she was a mother when I next met her. Annie came to help at the 4-H fund raiser at the Iron County Rodeo where the 4-Hers were selling hamburgers and other refreshments. We visited and I so enjoyed her. Her daughter was so cute and looked like I remembered Annie as a child. One year she helped us wearing a heart monitor but never complained. I know she will be deeply missed by all the family and friends.

“ I think the best memory of my beautiful niece is the way she loved she was the best wife mother and friend that you could have. I lived our last christmas when she came in and Ciara had made me a gift Annie laughed and said I dont know where you will put this it was a cross made from 2 limbs with pine cones and feathers. I think it is one of the best gifts I ever received because she taught her daughter how to show love from the heart and not just words. I will miss you Annie but will treasure yr memories everyday love you aunt Debbie
