I have never met a nicer, sweeter woman than Betty Jones! In all of the years I have known her, I have never seen her without being impeccably dressed, no a hair out of place and that beautiful, kind smile on her face. We've shared laughter, many conversations and big ole hugs and I won't ever forget her. I have always thought of her daughter Barb as a very good friend of mine and share the loss with her, she will be missed by so many. Our daughter grew up with Randy and I want home to know that even though we have all lost an Angel, Heaven has gained one of the best, and God will be waiting with open arms to receive our dear Betty. May God Bless her family and know that we send our love and many prayers.
