“ Mrs. McClary was always a kind lady to my daughter, Pam, who spent many summer hours at the McClary home as a friend of Robin's. The girls were good friends and Mrs. McClary was always one to make others feel welcome. She was even patient with our dog named, Mandy. Mandy couldn't make up her mind if she should live at our house or follow the girls over to the McClary home. Mandy would stay a couple weeks at one place and then get lonesome for the other place. Mrs. McClary was patient and loving and I know she will be missed by her family and friends. Blessings and prayers to each of you.
