“ *I have the pleasure working with you for several years it change Vera you always gave a 110 percent would drive 4 hours a day there and back going 200 miles per hour to make up for a guess it was Sean being late with most excuse you usedbut u always showed. Unless u burnt ur feet from frying a frozen turkey upstairs in pattys reading room because James said had best ventilation up there. Or ate a filet Mignon in two bites while asking me if all Irish mic's used steak knives to cut there burgers? Do all country boys eat the tooth picks holding bacon on there filets. Missed work for months on that one. 4 times in last 2 years I have went to your gas station and wait'd fir u to come to get ammo ice or beer. Only to leave with a smile of thinking of all laughs , the lessons, the friendship, hardest country boy, respectfully to those who deserved it. Lived life like it was his last Now that I know that u have went on ur last hunt. I won't wait at ur gas station any more for u my friend I will listen in the woods, and on the river for the sounds of horse n kurr dogs and look forward to seeing you again in heaven mate. But till then I will teach ur lessons to my twin boys so u and ur ways will live on for another generation and will still be a day late. Love you carl
