“ I wish that I had more years with grandpa, but I'm glad I got 16 years worth of memories and pictures. I loved him so much. I remember sitting at the old house and him teaching me how to whistle. He taught me how to drive the tractor, and if I was down there when he cut the grass, when he would finish up he would let me get on there with him. Then there was the times when we would go and pick the walnuts from the walnut tree down by the lake. When they moved to the house that Grandma lives in now, he was the one that would take me to the pool, because grandma wouldn't want to. I still have the wooden horse and the block of wood with my named carved into it.

*I miss you so much grandpa, I hope you know that I love so much.
