“ I am sincerely sorry to have opened the online edition of The Mountain Echo to discover that Cindy passed away recently. Her AV Alumni column (under the byline Cindy Parmer Demand) was a fixture in the paper for many years, including while I was publisher. Cindy loved the Valley and loved reporting on the lives and times of AV folks who lived far and wide. Too soon gone, but she will be long remembered. Godspeed. Scott L. Gordon

“ To My Extended Parmer/Demand Family,
Bob, Alex and I could not be with you at the time of the service but were and still hold you all in our thoughts and prayers.
I spent time in memory of Cindy looking back a pictures from 50 years of pseudo cousin fun...all the way back to my first birthday at Grandma Siebert's with Cindy and Penny, overnight stay at Scott Air Force Base, the weddings and more.
Cindy was a very thoughtful person who will always hold a special place in my heart. I wish I had her way with words to express my hopes for peace and comfort for Jen, Dave-Bob, Mike, Aunt Jacque, Penny and Leslie and families. Simply sending all our love,
Nancy, Bob and Alex Weiss

“ Our deepest sympathy to Mike, Jen and David and their families, also Jacque, Penny and Leslie. To my Dear little Lucy! Our friendship started some 37 years a go and what sweet memories my family and I have of our times together. I will always remember the sound of your sweet voice, how you could describe something in vivid detail and your undying faith in God. I know God has his little red headed angel next to Him and you feel the love we all have for you. I will not say good bye, but I will say I will see you later, because then we will share that pot of tea in heaven! I Love you. Lucy!

“ My heart goes out to Cindy's family at this time. Cindy's life was a great blessing. Through the time of her illness, Cindy always thought of others. I am the chapter leader of Sow Many Blessings in DeKalb, Illinois. I met Cindy on our Facebook page a year ago. Cindy generously sent Chemo beanies to our chapter for others who were fighting for their lives. I am blessed to have "virtually" met Cindy through Facebook. Praying for your family! God bless all of you!

“ My love and prayers are with you all and I am so lucky to have Cindy in my life. Mike and her were such great Pre Marriage Class leaders for two of my children. They have a great marriage and I think it was because they both were such great teachers. I have so many memories, but the rides to our Nursing Home jobs were very special. Remember God loved her very much and she carried the cross He gave her like a trooper and her Family is so special because they stood by her the long road.

“ Cindy, you were my very first friend and my sister. My admiration of you was always very strong when we were younger and I wanted to be just like you. As we grew up and had families of our own, my admiration only grew. I am so proud of the wonderful person you were. Kind, generous, caring, talented, and most of all, you are the strongest and bravest person I have known. I'm sorry we never got our wish of seeing all of our Grandbabies together, but I promise you my grandchildren will always know what a wonderful and loving Aunt you were to them. Fly high, Cin. Never forget, I LOVE YOU TO THE MOON AND BACK !
