You would let me come stay with you guys during the summers when I was a kid. I had so much fun. Never saw chickens or their eggs before then. We just saw you about a year and a half ago. Momma a not good she's under hospice care now. I remember you liked fairies and you always cooked way to much food for someone who didn't eat a lot lol You are greatly missed. I love you. “ my heart is saddened at the loss of a dear cousin. Della was the first of the Lotz grandkids, her brother Bob was next, then me, Sue Lotz Suchman. I always felt like Della was a big sister and I wanted to be a secretary like her when I grew up. She served for 30 years with Brown Shoe, I served for 30 years as a Church Secretary. I hope I served as well as she did. Our prayers are with Danny and his family and Bob as they adjust to living without her earthly presence.
