“ What a wonderful lady. I was blessed with getting to visit with her several different times and she just loved seeing my baby girl Rylie. She talk with her and watch her son her things and always had a smile on her face....I didn't know her closely but she was a super lady so I was lucky to have known her and she has a son John that's pretty good too I must say. I will miss you granny and our brief visits. I will never forget you sweet lady. John, Rosie & Johnny yall are in my thoughts and prayers.....I love you guys. The rest of her kids and grandkids and family whom I do not know, yall as well are in my thoughts and prayers...Holly Skaggs

“ My Grandma, I wish I had been able to see you more recently and that you were able to meet your great-grandchildren. A regret I will forever have. I hope that you knew how much I loved you and how truly special a person I thought you were. May you have peace in heaven. I will miss you.
