“ Mr. and Mrs. Hogan were my away-from-home parents in college-- and more than 30 years later, they still remain my 'other' parents in my heart. Mrs. Hogan is a kind and gentle-hearted soul who always 'saw' me, in my introversion. When my husband died, she bought me a beautifully painted art piece for my wall that reminded me that His eye is on the sparrow. I know that the LORD saw Mrs. Hogan and kindly attended her all the way to the victory that is now forever hers! I will always love her. -Laura Sande

“ We were blessed to know Elaine and Mike for many years. Elaine’s parents were just wonderful people. We cherish each of our visits as we spent time discussing so many topics. Elaine was such a gentle, kind person who was a blessing to our lives. JoAnn and I will miss her spirit of kindness and thoughtfulness. She was a sterling inspiration to us and others, a dear mother to her children, and an ever present gift to Mike.
