Everett Nichols was at the Belleview Post Office everyday until it closed Dec. 31 2013. Always willing to help anyway he could. Everyone that came to work in this office he would tell them just put the flag outside the office door and he would put it up.

This is a good picture of dad sitting in the Belleview Post Office. The ladies there put a stool out there so he did not have to stand up. All the ladies in the post office really love dad he would do different things for all of them like put the flag out, shovel snow on side walks. In about nine days dad will be gone two years and I miss him as much as I did when he was taken away from us.
