“ Harold has been a friend of my family's since before I was born. He has always been a part of my life and I only have happy memories of him. He was very good friends with my grandmother Deloris, and later dated my other grandmother Carol. He always would come over and want to go fishing, or play cards or yatzee. When I was first learning to talk he blurted out a phrase during a yatzee game, and my parents were shocked when I repeated him. He was always fun to be around. He was a very caring man and he will be greatly missed.
