“ James was my exbrother-in law whom always had a hug and kiss no matter where I seen him, He was one of the hardest working men I ever knew and would do anything for anyone. Always had a big smile and a good conversation to share. I never got to see him often but I always thought of him like he was still a brother inlaw. He will be missed by many including my five sons Troy, Trent, Toby, Teddy and Terry. Everyone loved James. R.I.P. James. Always

“ James was a older cousin of mine (Thompson). One of Mom's favorites. Those Jones always make her feel like she was part of the crew.
I'm sure glad we got a visit in on a " good " day not very long ago. We go back all the way. This family will sure miss him.

Good bye dear cousin. Going to miss you so much. So many childhood memories because I practically spent my younger year summers at your mom and dad's house and so many great camping trips with our families then. So sorry we couldn't be there. Sincere condolences and love to all your family. RIP dear James till we meet again. Rick and Betty(Bartley) Hinkle
