“ My name is Molly and John was my Dad, no, not my biological father, but, my DAD!! He chose to be my Dad in 1995 when him and my mom became a couple and we moved in with him. We had a rocky relationship for many years (mostly my fault) but he never once let me push him away, never once gave up on me even though I gave him, and everyone else, numerous reasons to, wouldn't allow anyone to say anything derogatory about me but would stand up for me instead and loved and believed me when I couldn't do either one of those things myself. He was always proud of me no matter what and always had my back with everyone and everything!! My Dad showed myself and my Mom what love and family really are, taught me about life and living and taught me everything a father teaches a daughter. Not a moment goes by that him and my mom aren't on my mind, I miss them more than words can say.

Thank you, Earl John Lee Acey for being the BEST DAD anyone could ever ask for!!
