What wonderful memories I have of June Miller! I spent half my high school years spending the night with Juanita and her family in Des Arc in the little and big houses! I last saw June when the family came to Virginia for a service honoring a family member. It had been so long since I'd seen her. I was so happy to visit a few minutes with her. Juanita and Judy, you know I'm so sorry. Please know I'm thinking of you and the rest of the family. Love, Alice
