“ I first meet Kevin at a model ship battle in (I think) the fall of 2007. He came to Ritter Springs with a ship he had put together several years before and never battled with it. Several of us helped him get it ready for battling the next day. It didn't work long, so we lent him a ship for the rest of the event. He was hooked and soon had another ship. He hosted battles for us at the "local" Engler Pond, The Tangler at Engler, for five years. He made shirts for his battles and our Nationals. I always remeber him and his big smile and laugh and his dog running around between battles. Kevin will be missed. A photo of his German Battlecruiser Derflinger (on the left). Also a photo of him holding a ship he damaged and sunk, note the big hole in the ship and the BIG grin.
