

Lonnie Emmett Brown

June 2, 1947 - December 25, 2021

Lonnie Emmett Brown was born June 2nd 1947 in Rolla Missouri and on Christmas day, December 25th 2021, Lonnie took his last earthly breath and proceeded home to join his heavenly family after fighting a lengthy illness. Lonnie was a simple man that enjoyed life and his family. He was a humble man that enjoyed being one with nature whether it be hunting, fishing, or simply being outside enjoying what his maker created. He was born in Rolla, Missouri, but grew up in Ironton. He graduated high school at Arcadia Valley class of 1966. He served his country by spending roughly two years on foreign soil in Vietnam as a young man. He returned home to start a family and career at Monsanto Electronics. In 1972 he welcomed his son William Lonnie Brown to this earth. After that he spend his years travelling, spending time with family, and creating memories. Lonnie was able to see not only his grandchildren's births but also lucky enough to meet his great grandchildren, and spend plenty of time with them. He was proceeded in death by his father Arnold Emmett Brown, his mother Anita Davault Brown, both of St. Charles Missouri. A brother Richard Brown of Ironton Missouri, a brother Walter Robert Brown of St. Charles Missouri, a sister Faye Brown Counts of Elvins Missouri, a sister Wilma Jean Brown Kitchell of Ironton Missouri also proceeded him in death. He is survived by a brother Harvey Lee Brown of Villa Park Illinois, a sister Brenda Brown Shatro of Wellville Missouri, a sister Linda Brown Thornton of Farmington Missouri, and several nieces and nephews. Lonnie is also survived by his wife Joyce Morris Brown, his son William Lonnie

Brown and his wife Jennifer, and his best friend Debra Beaver. He is also survived By his grandchildren William Lonnie Brown II and his fiancé Meagan, and Cheyenne Brown Lewis and her husband Bubba, and his great grandchildren Elijah, Kaleb, and Hunter.
