“ As a young boy, Grandma would make oatmeal cookies for me without raisins. I remember picking green beans and tomatoes from the garden. I remember canning with Grandma and sitting at the kids table during family events.

As I grew and began working, I would send Grandma a post card for every location I would visit. I later learned she enjoyed the cards.

It was great to say my good-byes before you left for paradise and remind you of all the times you were there for me.

“ I am going to miss my Grandma so very much. I was always her girl when I would spend my summers with her. She wanted me to know that family is what matters, and I will carry that with me forever. I love you so much, Grandma!! Kimberly (Kimmy)

Hello. My name is Rhonda Montgomery. I cleaned your grandmas house years ago. I bought a picture she painted. I was wondering if you would like the painting?
