“ Dearest John,

Our family was deeply saddened when we heard the news of your mother's death this week. We are sending you our sincerest condolences and know that you will be in our thoughts and prayers. Your mother is the strongest woman we have ever known and we will miss her greatly. Your mother has always comforted us when we were depressed and gave us strength when we are feeling down. We hope that we can return the favor and give you strength and comfort during this difficult time. There are no words that can take away the pain in your heart right now, but know that we are always here for you and praying for you.”

“ So sorry for the loss of your Mother and Grandmother. I just recently met her through our weekly card games. She was such a delight to know and we had some really great talks about our Savior. She had such a strong faith that I know carried her through this long sickness. I know she has now entered His rest and we will all be together again soon. My prayers are for your comfort and to remember her laughter and sense of humor. She always brought a smile to me. So sorry that I cannot attend service. I have out of town family coming in for the weekend. My spirit and heart is with you.
