“ My mom was a great lady. I will never forget the day we went fishing out at Lake Killarney and we were getting ready to leave. She handed me her pole and told to reel in the line that it was time to go. So there I am reeling it in and I feel a fish on the line she didn't know was there. I told her, "Mom there's a fish on here." She said, "No, there isn't." I said, "Yes there is." I started reeling in and I caught a 15 inch bass. She said, "I really caught it I just you reeled it in." I said, "You didn't even know it was on there." And she said, "Yes, I did." About 3 or 4 years later she was telling this to someone and I heard her say she didn't know it was on there . I said, "See I knew you didn't know it." That was the end of that
