“ My deepest condolences to the family. I stumbled across this by chance as I no longer live in the area... I knew Nina many, many years ago when she was leading the puppet ministry at Silver Springs baptist church. I still remember all of our many talks in my high school years that helped shaped who I became today. I will never in my life forget attending a weekend clowning ministry school with her. Such a wonderful person and a blessing to many... much love to you all.
