“ Pat was like a second mom to me - when Pammy Sue and I became friends over 45 years ago, Pat adopted Bill and me and then our kids and later, their kids. She was always smiling, always happy. We spent a lot of time at her and Russell's, especially when our kids were little. She was the most hard working woman! Seems she rarely sat down, always trying to get someone something - something to eat or drink, always caring for someone. Even the last time I saw her, when I know she didn't feel good, she never complained and always still smiled. And her hugs! Our hearts hurt for you Pam - and Paul and your kids, she loved you all so dearly and it always showed! I will miss her! Though I know she is now no longer hurting, she's up there making Russell dance and smiling and laughing! A piece of her will always be here though - in Pam's loving heart and quick laugh and those hugs.....I love you Pammy Sue, my heart sister and will always be here if/when you need me.

“ Pam I've been thinking about my FAVORITE memory of Aunt Pat and it's difficult to choose but my favorite has to be her trip to Hawaii to visit me in 1985, it was glorious. We had SO much fun! When she and Grandma Cricket danced in front of everyone at the luau I was convinced Aunt Pat must have Polynesian blood in her because she definitely had the moves down pat right away.

You are in my prayers and my thoughts as you navigate the days ahead. I love you and we'll see you soon.

Pam. My fondest memory of my Aunt Pat was when your mom and dad came to watch me play basketball when I was a police officer and we played they KSHE-95 team for a fundraiser. W laughed and laughed how bad we were but I had fun every single time we were together. Billy and I enjoyed eating out with your mom and dad. He was so much fun. My very fond memories was playing with you guys when you came to visit. We were always a loving family and a part of that will forever be missing. I love you so much and I know that your strength will get you through this terrible time. Billy is out of town but he sends his love. See you soon.
