“ I met Miss Patsy in one of the doctors offices she visited and I only saw her every couple of months, but she was such a pleasure. My family is from Lesterville, and we would chat about that. Heaven gained a wonderful lady.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Your mother was such a wonderful person. Always happy and full of life. I know she was so proud of her children, and blessed to have you. It is such a sad time for the one's left behind, but we all know where your mom is. It can help you have peace to know she is smiling down from Heaven. My condolences. Rose W.

“ Bill and I had a great time last summer with Mom. Bill installed the new shower and I spoiled her rotten. She got to have anything she wanted. If it wasn't at the house then I would run and get it. I had several trips to the store. We were so naughty! The best memory is making pies with her. It was the best coconut cream pie! When we were getting ready to leave she said that she would starve after I left. LOL! I'm sorry we couldn't spend more time together. Rest in peace. Love you!
