“ Only God knows how many people's lives have been touched by your ministry Uncle Rich. At least, that's the case for us still following after you. But now, YOU know. Thanks for the opportunities you gave me to learn and grow in the Lord. You opened up your pulpit for me to preach many times and you encouraged me. I am forever grateful to you and Aunt Judy for playing such a pivotal role in my spiritual life at a very young age. May souls that I win be credited to your love and witness upon my life. You're a man of unwavering Faith and definitely leave a testimony that points to Christ. I love you and miss you already, but I'll see you soon.
