

Terry Lee Dibble

January 29, 1948 - August 18, 2020

Terry Lee Dibble of Pilot Knob, MO passed away on Tuesday, August 18, 2020 at the age of 72 years, 6 months, and 20 days. He was born January 29, 1948 in St. Louis, MO to the late Paul Kernan Dibble and Audrey Richter. For 29 years, Terry worked for the City of Ironton where he served his community with pride, love, and if you knew Terry, a lot of laughter! He also served as an alderman for the City of Pilot Knob, he was a member of the A.V. Elks Lodge and the A.V. Eagles Lodge, he supported the Patriot Guard and our local military veterans, and would give the shirt off of his back to anyone who needed it; he was the definition of a good man and friend. He loved his family, he loved his friends, he loved his community, and he loved his Lord whom he thanked every day when his feet hit the floor. Terry will be missed greatly and remembered fondly by all who knew and loved him.

Terry is survived by six children; Cynthia Dibble of Illinois, Rebecca Garner of Imperial, Terry Dibble, Jr. of Illinois, Larry Periman of Florida, James Periman of Bonne Terre, and Nikki Dibble of Pilot Knob, one sister Janie Nelson of Illinois, eleven grandchildren; Joanie, Justin, Jared, Jade, Jessica, Reghan, Aubrey, Myah, Bryna, Jarrett, and Ethyn, two great-grandchildren, Summer and Esmay, and many other loving family members and friends. He is preceded in death by his parents and a brother Paul Dibble.

“ Oh the memories I could share! Growing up with Terry was interesting. He kept mom hopping that was for sure. I remember him taking us fishing when he lived up on the mountain. I asked him to bait my hook with a worm. He told me that if I wanted to fish, bait my own hook. I did and been baiting it ever since. Just one of the many things he taught me being the little sister. I will miss you big brother.
