“ Lance loved his mother and spoke of her often. Not many men these days are as close to there mom's as he was and he didn't care how many people knew it . He would help out anyone who needed help. He had such a big heart for people and animals! I remember him coming to our house a couple times and crying about an abused and mistreated dog and how it just broke his heart to see an animal being kicked and starved. He took such good care of his dogs and always played with our dogs when he visited. I'll never forget him asking them if they wanted a snackie snack in a voice like you'd use talking to small children. He will be sadly missed and my deepest condolences go to his family. My God help you through this devastating time. Donnie and Sheila Williams
