“ Anna Lee, Virgil, Eddie (and families). Please remember the promise that was made to us in God's Word....."to be absent in this life is to be present with the Lord". You all will be in our prayers that you will draw strength from God as you go through this very sorrowful time in your life. Many adjustments you will have to make, but just remember that "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me".

Cherish the memories of your Mom. Be assured that death or nothing can take them from you.....they are yours to keep in your heart and mind. Love and prayers to you all from our family.

“ Wanda Lou was a beautiful person whose smile lit up a room. She shared that smile and that spunky spirit with all she met, and I feel blessed to have known her. She will be greatly missed. But there will be one star that shines a little brighter in the sky now...

“ Wanda Lou had a beautiful impact on many lives and touched friends and family with the Love of Jesus who shined through her. She was dedicated to The Lord and her Church was very important to her. Many times she asked for prayer for her family members and her desire was that all her family would come to know The Lord as their personal Saviour. The Sale family will miss her greatly.
