“ *Bill was the very best son that God ever created, other than His Own Son Jesus Christ.
He loved God first, others and then himself. He has taught me many things about the ordeals of life and what to do in different situations in life that come our way, especially since his Dad passed back in 2018. I am so very thankful to God that Bill was our son. I will forever be grateful to God for him.*

I got to know Bill and Sharon when I had their kids in school. They were very involved in the school district, and Bill devoted many years to the Bismarck Board of Education. Most recently, I would run into Bill at the Rustler, a small cafe in Pilot Knob. He always had a friendly manner, and never met a stranger. My condolences to the family.
